They are available in India, Australia, New Zealand and UK. Kenya is a country in Eastern Africa that has an [360mps] M.S.Player PC çıkış çıkış çıkış çıkış çıkış çıkış çıkış çıkış çıkış.. Kisasi series Pinoy Big Brother KSTY has said on his Instagram account that he is starting a new venture which is to promote the original Pinoy Hip Hop culture. and other genres of music. Some days after he uploaded the 360 video, it has been taken down but it was too late. As of writing this article, the video is still available on the video sharing sites like YouTube and Imgur which is a huge relief. Initially, he only wanted to promote his own music but as he started sharing his own tracks, other video artists started liking and commenting his posts. On the other hand, some others commented that this was good for the youth to know about the original Filipino Hip Hop Culture that they are being sold with the KSTY name. What's more, they were stressing the importance of the original pinoy hip hop culture that they could do better without KSTY. What is interesting is how KSTY had played the role of a teacher to this generation by finally getting all the younger generation together to discuss about the original pinoy hip hop culture. It has also made them come out and talk about this culture that they were being sold. The pinoy hip hop artists have finally united and started to speak up about their original Philippine culture and what it meant to them as young people. He also insisted that they could do better without KSTY and he did not want his name attached to such an act. After all, he wanted to prove to the kasi kaka (older generation) that they should not judge a book by its cover. Check out his full video on his Instagram below: Here's the original version of the song that he chose to use in the video: "Here at MOHS FM, we are 6d1f23a050
